| 214 | La Grande Dame Veuve Clicquot 1998Champagne from a wonderful vintage, much appreciated by Champagne drinkers  | 195.00 |
| 217 | Veuve Clicquot Brut 2004The bold, lively, and pure flavor transforms into a powerful, structured palate, delicately chiselled from the minerality of Champagne's chalky terroir. The generosity of the Pinot Noir's fruitiness resonates harmoniously with the freshness of the lightly candied citrus fruit aromas (lemon) which are embellished in the finish with delicate hints of toasted notes. | 160.00 |
| 218 | Veuve Clicquot Rosé 2004Soft and creamy, the fine texture carries flavors of black currant and wild strawberry, with hints of financier, citrus zest and smoky mineral. Very appealing for its overall finesse and finely tuned, mouthwatering acidity  | 180.00 |
| 229 | Comtes de Champagne Taittinger 2000The colour is a pale straw yellow. The bubbles are exceptionally fine and abundant and form a delicate mousse. The delicate nose is reminiscent of a mixture of flinty aromas and toast, followed by fine and light essences of wood echoed by subtle notes of brioche and vanilla   | 295.00 |

Did you know...

Champagne has often been a female business. Various widows ran the big houses during eras when it was unusual to see a woman in charge. She may not have been the first (widow Soyez came before her), but Mrs. Clicquot remains the archetype. Her wine was even called La Veuve ("The Widow")

219 Krug Grande Cuvée Brut 250.00
There is nothing like drinking the best Magnum 500.00

220 Krug Rosé 320.00
An aristocrat amongst fizzy wines – the subtle colour and refined nose added to the almost creamy mousse makes this one of the world's greatest wines.

222 Krug 1995 350.00
This is a tightly wound, sinewy Champagne loaded with brioche, toasted oak, lemon rind, flowers and minerals.

247 Salon 1999 1200.00
Natural sophistication!
37, the final count. There have only been 37 years worthy of Salon Champagne during the entire 20th century. 37 vintages, all different, all sublime, all unique, like this exceptional Salon Champagne, for which the word "one" is of prime importance: originally the champagne of one man, Aimé Salon, cultivated on one stretch of land, the Côte des Blancs, from one vineyard, Mesnil-sur-Oger, from one type of grape, Chardonnay and one year. 1999 is the thirty-seventh and last vintage of the 20th century: a wild nature, to be tamed, with power and expectancy, looking to a glorious future, still imminent. Mouth-filling, with a creamy, featherlight mousse and the vivacious chalky minerality of the Mesnil terroir, there is tremendous tension and self-assurance to this champagne, which remains nevertheless delicate and enigmatic. As ever finely wrought, Salon 1999 rides the knife-edge of finesse and power with characteristic panache.

270 Delamotte Brut NV 72.00
Crisp and minerally, with smoke and chalk accents underscoring the rich notes of lemon curd, glazed apricot and spring blossom 272 Magnum 138.00

228 Delamotte Blanc de Blanc NV Half Bottle 55.00

273 Delamotte Blanc de Blanc 2008 168.00
Champagne Delamottes Grand Cru Blanc de Blancs 2008 is all about balance - its power, finesse and purity co-exist flawlessly, each enhancing the other. Well-structured, complex but delicate at the same time, Delamotte 2007 is accessible in youth but will age beautifully, if you can resist it that long.

Did you know...

Others were there before him, but it was Alain Brumont who put Madiran on the wine map. He left the family domaine at Boucasse in 1980, dissatisfied by his fathers lack of ambition for quality, and set up on his own. In a mere 20 years, Brumont has succeeded by a combination of breathtaking chutzpah and brilliant winemaking in creating the largest fine wine domaine in the south-west and establishing without a doubt that Tannat is a first division quality grape variety. The basic Bouscasse (70 percent Tannat) and Montus (80 percent Tannat) are matured in 50% new wood, and are very fine. The better cuvees, both 100% Tannat and aged in new wood, are brilliant." #### Did you know...

During the late 19th century, several villages in the Cote d'Or were awarded the right to add to their name(s) of the grands crus produced in their locality. Thus, in 1882, Chambolle took the name Chambolle-Musigny, Gevrey became Gevrey-Chambertin, both Puligny and Chassagne villages share the name of their grand cru, the famous Montrachet and Ladoix, while Vosne has naturally benefitted from the reputation of Romanee.

Rhone

White Rhone, with the possible exception of Condrieu, is very unfashionable, partly as a result of grape varieties few have heard of, partly the often overblown style and partly its cost. All this is a shame because the well made wines are lost to most white wine drinkers. Our white Chateauneuf will surprise and delight the palates of those open minded enough to try it. There is proper Chateauneuf du Pape from serious growers that is getting more expensive by the second and cheap, dilute, over- sugared wines tasting of dirty old wood.

The vinifications are low-intervention and the process is never set in stone, with methods varying depending on the vintage. No additives are used apart from a very small amount of sulphur after fermentation. Finally, the maturation is very long, 2 years. The wines from this domain are sublime and distinguished by their finesse and their remarkable tannins. They have wonderful maturity and great cellaring potential

SPAIN

Does any country give such value and diversity in red wines as Spain? We collect the ultra traditional in fine vintages from La Rioja Alta and Vega Sicilia and the up and coming from areas like Priorat and Castilla Leon. Most of these are not supermarket cheap because of the costs of production but they more than stand up to more expensive wines from more well known sources. They are also food wines which, strangely enough, are meant to be drunk with food, which is not the same as saying that they are too tannic to drink on their own. Modern Spanish whites made from the Viura grape can be dull or bland but for real character try the old fashioned VinaGravonia, with its savoury flavours of wood or the mouth-watering minerality of the Albarino.

Did you know...

Vineyard yields in Spain are among the lowest in the world.

The average yield is just 1.4 tons per acre (25hl/ha). This figure is remarkably low, especially when compared with that of neighbouring countries (4.2 tons per acre/70hl/ha on average in France). It can be attributed to the presence of very old vines in the various growing areas, as well as the rigorous climatic conditions that make life quite tough for the vine - but to the benefit of the wine.

96 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

"The 1994 Vina Tondonia Gran Reserva has an elegant bouquet with light red cherries, orange blossom, mahogany bureau and burnt buttered toast. The palate has a meaty, savory entry with crisp tannins and racy acidity. It displays superb structure towards the finish where one finds notes of bitter lemon, orange peel and sage. Delicious!"

At a recent wine tasting this wine was a shining star at the surprise of everybody .

La Rioja Alta: is unquestionably one of the top bodegas of Rioja, traditional in style but not afraid of innovation. The names of the two top wines 904 and 890 refer to the dates of the founding of the company in 1890 and to it becoming a limited company in 1904. We are proud of the wines we list from this bodega, especially the older fine vintage.

NEW ZEALAND

Now reeling a little from over-production the Sauvignon Blanc success story in New Zealand from a standing start in the early eighties to world domination in the last decade or so, is quite extraordinary. And they look as though they might do a similar job with Pinot Noir and even follow that with Syrah, sorry Shiraz. As to the question do New Zealand wines age well, the 1993 Cabernet from the Goldwater Estate in the North Island can answer very much in the affirmative.

AUSTRALIA

Once everyone's favourite source of exciting new wines, Australia is suffering from consumer indifference especially at the prestigious end where they have been patiently and successfully working away for the last twenty years. The wines have not got worse, most have improved but customer loyalty was lost somewhere along the way. Retasting wines like the Dead Arm Shiraz from the 2001 vintage makes their relative neglect ridiculous. We doubt that there is better value for money in the whole of our list.

Like many countries where wine appreciation is a relatively recent development, Australia places a lot of emphasis on wine challenges and competitions. These shows are very professionally organised and make a good promotional platform for the winning wines. They may be national or regional, confined wines from certain grape varieties, or simply encompass all wine categories.

- 193 Seghesio, Sonoma County Zinfandel 2018  half bottle 39.00
Notes of wild raspberry, plum and sweet spice emerge on the richly textured palate, tempered by supple tannins and fresh acidity. This is a well-balanced and elegant expression of Zinfandel.

California - Napa County

Napa Valley

- 923 Cakebread Cellars Benchland Select Cabernet Sauvignon 2013  315.00
Ripe, dramatically concentrated aromas of boysenberry, blackberry and blackcurrant fruit, coupled with seductive chocolate and loam scents, introduce a lush palate of luxurious dark berry, cassis, black fig and dark chocolate flavors framed by round, supple tannins. Seamlessly structured and beautifully balanced, with a very long, sumptuous finish
- 635 Othello 2014 Christian Moueix  95.00
*92% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Petit Verdot.
Very pure, ripe black cherry and blackberries on the nose, then some menthol, with a little cedar and some graphite. So far, so Cabernet. The palate is medium-bodied on the entry, ingratiating itself over the course of a fine, elegant mid-palate, which reveals texture and a nicely nuanced structure. Fine earthy minerality and a detailed finish.*

California - Mendocino County

Anderson Valley

639 Cakebread Cellars Two Creeks Pinot Noir 2015  110.00

Fragrant aromas of sweet black cherry, raspberry and rose petal introduce the rich, pure fruit of this fresh and lively pinot noir. Dense mid palate flavors of ripe black cherry, red cherry, strawberry and plum, supported by fine, supple tannins, offer a layered complexity and glide into a round, long finish highlighting bright raspberry, cherry and mineral tones.

CHILE

Chile seems to have replaced Australia for the supply of simple well made wines at a modest price. But they are not content just to make basic wines, try the Ninquen red. It would flatter a much more famous wine region to have produced it. The favourable conditions for winemaking have tempted the Rothschild family of Bordeaux to become involved in the business with Los Vascos, making a fine Cabernet Sauvignon. What else?

Aconcagua - Red

Elqui Valley

708 Falernia Carmenere 2014 39.00

Medium-bodied, fruit-forward wine. With gentle tannins, and a deep crimson color, you can expect an array of berries, red fruits, spice, smokiness and earth on both the nose and palate.

Central Valley

573 Alto Los Romeros Gran Reserva Cabernet Franc 2018 35.00

Intense and bright ruby red in colour. The wine reveals aromas of plum and dark cherry, combined with spiced and toasted notes from oak barrel ageing. On the palate, the wine is weighty with firm tannins and the finish reveals dark fruit, coffee and light vanilla flavours.

CHILE

Apalta Valley - Red

909 Clos Apalta 2015

275.00

There is a subtle complexity on the nose with currant, berry, fresh herb and wet earth aromas. Cut fresh flowers, too. Full body, dense and powerful. Incredible character here with such purity and polish. It goes on for minutes. Formed, sculptured yet soulful. A monumental wine for Chile. Unbelievable. More powerful than the 2014 which was 100 points. A blend of 46% carmenere, 30% cabernet sauvignon, 19% merlot and 5% cabernet franc.

100 pts by James Suckling, May 2018

BULGARIA

---

Bessa Valley - Red

640 Enira 2017

40.00

This vintage is 66% Merlot, 12% Syrah, 12% Petit Verdot, and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon. Medium to full bodied with a velvety and lush mouthfeel, with smooth tannin, tamed acidity, and just the right amount of umami. There's flavors of cherries, blackberries, chocolate, cinnamon, and sinful lust.

ARGENTINA

As in Chile the price and quality of vineyards have attracted the aristocracy of Bordeaux. Here the Malbec is king!

Mendoza - White

- 29 El Cerro Chardonnay Buscado Vivo o Muerto 2020  55.00
The detailed nose features notes of hazelnut, pineapple, lemon zest and ginger over a bed of less-based aromas. The intense palate has good tension and concentration structured around the sharp acidity, making it powerful but also light on its feet. A pure expression of the variety.

Mendoza - Red

- 693 Decero Petit Verdot 2013  39.95
Plum and berry aromas, spicy complexity on the muscular palate, and a degree of refinement and balance often spoken about but seldom seen in pure Petit Verdots.
- 649 Achaval Ferrer 2017 Malbec  49.50
A delicious Malbec from Mendoza made by one of the best wine-making families in Argentina.
- 911 Achaval Ferrer Finca Bella Vista 2009 Malbec  225.00
Bella Vista on the nose is savoury and intriguing. Dark fruit comes through on agitation, combined with red fruit and floral refreshment. Super silky, the tannins meld seamlessly within layers of ripe, bright berries - a stunning ambassador for Mendoza, crying out for great food - a fine example of how power can balance with elegance.
- 500 Malbec Reserva 2021 Kaiken 32.50
Rich, dark and full bodied with hints of black cherry and liquorice. The wine presents a vivid ruby red colour. On the nose it shows generous intensity and freshness, showing mature red fruits and some spiciness, accompanied by vanilla aromas coming from the oak aging that enhance the wine complexity. Nice acidity with velvety, round and elegant tannins. 60% French oak aging for 6 months.
- 614 Privada 2019 Norton  59.00

- 835 Catena Alta 2000  Jereboam 360.00
Imperial (6l) 720.00

Often seen as the halfway house between the Old and the New World. More ripe fruit than Europe but not quite the fruit bombs of California and Australia. We particularly enjoy the wines from the de Trafford estate. The Straw Wine is one of the best stickies that we serve.

Full yet elegant with ripe brambly fruit and some meaty, savoury undertones.

De Trafford- Amongst the very best producers on the Cape. All these practices speak of the commitment to quality.
